Worship Bags

We are blessed at GracePoint with many wonderful children who join us for worship. The worship bags are available for your child to use during the services. Your help is appreciated in keeping them organized by:

- Toys and items not be swapped out between bags because this leaves some bags with nothing and others with too much.
- Throw away any and all trash because we want the next user not to find trash in the bags.
- Place crayons and other small toys back into their containers.
- Please return the bags to the rack.

Thank you! With everyone's help, these bags may be a blessing to the children and our visitors.

Welcome to GracePoint!

Please use a Connection Card (in the pew racks) to request prayer, share comments or, if you are a visitor, provide contact info.

ABOUT THE WORK AS WORSHIP RETREAT

FEBRUARY 23, 2018 • $25

Many people spend a great deal of time at work and yet they don't see how their work intersects with their faith. Imagine spending a day at a church interacting with, praying with, and encouraging fellow business leaders and workers. In addition, you will hear rich content with biblical teaching and practical advice from seasoned Christian speakers.

One of the goals of this retreat is helping people realize that there isn't a divide between the sacred and secular parts of our lives and that working with our God-given skills can be an act of worship.

We might spend two hours of our week at the church building or in a small group. This kind of worship is biblical and a vital rhythm in the life of a Christian. But during the other 166 hours of our week, we have just as much potential to worship the God who created us. Our time at church and small group should launch us out into the world—which includes the marketplace—prepared to take the hope of Jesus with us.

Take a retreat day from the office and come to be encouraged in your faith during this live streaming event. Lunch is included in the $25 registration fee.

GracePoint Church is one of the host sites for the event. You can find the registration link at
